RULES

- *Champion Buckles will be awarded for the 12 Divisions listed above. Reserve Champions will receive an end of day award. (Green Horse Cattleman Division will Receive an Award)
- *Open is open to EVERYONE, but is the only division a trainer/riding instructor may enter
- *Amateurs are 18+ years old as of January 1
- *Youth are under 18 years old as of January 1
- *Novice WT are 18+ years old as of January 1
- *Youth WT are under 18 years old as of January 1
- *Jr. Youth WT are under 11 years old as of January 1
- *We are happy to have gate holds for tack changes, please just let the gate keeper know.
- *This is a very laid-back show that is aimed to give first time show exhibitors a fair shake. Please make sure you read the following rules and compete in the division for which you are best suited.
- *Please note: In all Pattern Classes for Amateur, Youth, & Green Horse Divisions you may choose your gait where lope is indicated: trot, extended trot or lope
- *Handlers who are only showing in-hand may cross enter "All Division" & "All WT Division" in-hand classes. Contestants who are riding MUST choose the in-hand division that corresponds to their riding division.
- *WT Divisions may NOT show in any Amateur, Open or youth Classes
- *WT Divisions are for riders who have been showing for a minimal time frame, who lack confidence to lope AND/OR are physically unable to lope.
- *If you are a confident and/or experienced rider that wishes to WT only, please ride in the Amateur or Youth Division. No loping is required in the Amateur or Youth divisions, BUT you may lope in classes where lope is indicated.
- Open, Amateur, and Youth Trail will be at-will following the conclusion of the WJ classes in the second arena.
- *Negative Coggins required for all horses on property, whether showing or not.
- *A green horse is considered "green" if it has minimal showing experience, is inexperienced under saddle, has limited offsite hauling experience, is young, and/or is a problem horse being restarted under saddle.
- *Riders showing green horse may not show in the Novice WT classes.
- *Stallions are ONLY permitted in Open, Amateur, and Green Horse divisions.
- *Riders may show any horse of any age 2 handed in a snaffle bit or traditional rawhide bosal. Riders showing in a curb bit MUST show one handed.
- *For additional tack, equipment, showing rules please see ARHA Rulebook.
